! Priests building unity and peace.

!In a world marked by growing tensions, even within families and ecclesial communities, priests are called to promote reconciliation and foster com-! munion. Building unity and peace demands that we be pastors capable of wise discernment, skilled in the art of piecing together the fragments of ! the lives entrusted to our care, so that we can enable people to see the light of the Gospel in the midst of life's trials.

> World day of prayer for the sanctification of priests, 27 June 2025. Pope Leo, XIV

The Annual Mass For Our Deceased Parishioners and friends will be celebrated in St Mary's Church, Bellaghy, on Friday 14 November at 7pm. There will be an opportunity to light a candle in remembrance of THE ANNUAL MASS parishioners who have died since last November.

All three Churches will have a Box available at the Altar in which you can put the names of those you wish to be remembered in our prayers during the month of the Holy Souls (November).

For our seminarians, for the men discerning their vocation, and for the future priests of the diocese that, like St Paul, they will be able to say, "I have fought the good fight; I have run the race to the end; I have kept the faith."

Don't forget to put your clocks back!!

Indulgences for The Holy Souls. From 12noon on 1 November until midnight on 2 November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion, and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice), can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and Apostle's Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1 November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1—8 Nov. The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions, one per day from 1—8 November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.
